The clinic is under the direction of Sonoma Valley Varsity Head Coach Mike Boles along with the Dragon Coaching staff and current players/alumni. All campers will receive quality instruction in the fundamentals of defensive and offensive basketball. The philosophy is to teach basketball skills while also allowing players to test their individual abilities in competitive game situations. Most importantly, the camp's objective is to create a fun, safe, positive teaching environment that encourages learning, promotes sportsmanship and competition, and develops important life skills through an appreciation for the game of basketball.
